

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was any action taken when the Government perused the article in the newspapers?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—We inquired into the matter from the authorities themselves.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Were any final orders passed?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—There was no necessity; because the school authorities themselves came to an amicable settlement. There was no necessity for any further action by the Department.

Officers who died in harness.

491. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the names of officers who died in harness to whose family Government have given pension or any allowance or proposed to be given with the amount sanctioned to each; will a copy of the list of such persons prepared by Government be placed on the table?

Mr. P. V. Subramania Ayyar.—General rules for the grant of gratuity in such cases have been framed and the preparation of the list of those that may become eligible for it is nearing completion.

Villages visited by Director of Public Health.

492. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state the names of villages not served by car—visited by the Director of Public Health after he took charge of the department?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—A list of the villages visited by the Director of Public Health since he took charge is appended. (Appendix III.) Of these villages, some are accessible by car and some not. All places which required the personal inspection of the Director of Public Health have been visited by him in car, by walking or by boat according to circumstances.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—In the list the villages through which the car of the Director of Public Health passed are also included. I simply wanted to know the villages not served by car visited by the D. P. H. Can the Government give me an answer?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—These names are also in the list.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Is there any special object in including these villages through which his car passed?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Absolutely no object. We could well have eliminated them.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know how this mistake crept in here?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—We just found out which particular places he has visited to answer the question and we gave the full information.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—What stood in the way of the Government in the sifting process?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—We gave the full information.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Did they put them as an oversight?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—It may be considered as want of definiteness.

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—Is not going through a place a part of visiting the place?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I do not think.

Mr. C. A. Duseph.—In view of the difficulties pointed out, will the Government make all villages accessible to cars?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—It is impossible.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Is there any village included in this list which is not served by car or boat?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—There are a good many villages in this that are not served by car or boats.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—May I know the purpose for which he visited Vadakara? He simply passed through the place.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The information is he visited it. The exact purpose of his visit I don't know. We have no information.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Did he visit Chittur on an occasion other than on his way to Coonoor?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I want notice for the exact nature and date of the visit.

The Karuvannur Flood Prevention Scheme.

493. Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(1) whether the acting Chief Engineer agreed or disagreed with the Karuvannur Flood Prevention Scheme of Mr. Swaminatha Ayyar;

(2) the reason for his agreement or disagreement?

(3) the reasons for not taking the opinion of the permanent Chief Engineer on his scheme before Government orders were passed on it?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—(1) and (2) The acting Chief Engineer had not expressed any definite final opinion.
